I am referring to a place, like "the Republic Square". Meet you on/at/in the Rep. Square! To me "at" sounds acceptable though I haven't found it when I researched online.

He just bought a house with "2000 square feet" or "2000-square-foot" area. I know both of them are correct, but which is more common in colloquial AmE? Thank you.

Hello, could anyone explain to me what the difference between in the square and on the square is? I would say only in-because square has borders but I found out that both ...
